

Student Information Form

Dear Student,

Please take the time to complete this form honestly and thoroughly – not in the way you think your parents or we want you to answer. This form will help us to get to know you better and to write you a strong recommendation letter. Don't worry about being grammatically correct, and most of all – have fun with it!

We are looking forward to working with you,

Ms. Campbell & Mr. Whedbee

OTHER PARAMETERS YOU WOULD LIKE TO ADD:

Are there specific colleges you are considering?

College Name

Why?

List 5-8 adjectives that best describe you. VERY important.

REALLY important. Think of three of your personality traits or characteristics that a college/university would find attractive. 1) Name that characteristic, and 2) describe an anecdote from your life that demonstrates that quality or characteristic. Be as detailed and descriptive as possible. This will be extremely helpful to me in getting to know you and in writing a strong recommendation. Use another piece of paper if you need more space.

For example:

Characteristic #1: I never give up on something I attempt to do.

Anecdote: When I was in ninth grade and wanted to try out for the football team, everyone, including the coach, thought I was too small. I went out for the team anyway, and for the first month was pretty bruised up after trying to block and tackle all these other players so much bigger than me. For the first six games, I sat on the bench, never playing a minute. I decided that if I did want to play, I would have to work harder than anyone else on my technique. I stayed late after each practice working with the coach when he was available. On weekends, I worked with my dad who had played football in college. By the later part of the season, I was holding my own against those same bigger players that had run over me at the beginning of the year. I truly think the coach expected me to quit in the first weeks of the season, but I stuck with it and ended up playing about half of each of the last six games.

Characteristic #3:

Anecdote:

In what area do you feel you have shown the most growth during your high school years?

Does your academic record accurately reflect your academic ability? If not, why not?

Do you have accomplishments/interests/passions beyond what we know about or see at school? What have you done to pursue those interests? Go into some detail; I probably don't know what you do outside of school!

Do you have any specific concerns about the college planning process?
